

My family and I were appalled by the entire half-time show during the Superbowl. Television as a whole is becoming more and more disgusting with scantily clad women and sexually explicit scenes becoming the rule more than the exception. As a taxpayer I believe your organization needs to protect our air waves from this filth.